

March 3, 1974

Dear Ann:

Lenny asked me to write you about Fay Burgess. I've been trying to remember, but so far I haven't done very well. I know that my grandfather, Perry Burgess, didn't have any brothers; My father, Bruce Burgess, was their only son, and of course I was his only child. It is possible that Fay would be a cousin, perhaps fifth or sixth, but not any closer relation than that.

I'm sorry I am not able to give you any more information, but guess my memory isn't very good. My grandmother Burgess would have been my source of information, and she has been gone so many year that I can't recall what she may have told me about our relatives.

Sincerely,

Frankie Cruise