Telluride School Starts Sept. 2

Services Held for Jake Ranta

Funeral rites for Jacob Ranta were held at 2 P. M. Friday, Aug. 22 at Christ's Church with the Rev. Forest E. Bates and the Telluride Elks Lodge officiating.

Music for the services was furnished by Soloist Wilma Hancock, accompanied by Mrs. William Paris.

Palbearers were Robert Irving, James Bonito, Eino Pekkarine, Albert Backman, A. B. Gustafson and Harry Johnson.

Interment in the Elks plot at Lone Tree Cemetery, Telluride, was directed by Conley Chapel.

Obituary

Jake Ranta was born at Lappajarvi, Finland, September 15, 1892. He attended and was graduated from the public schools of Finland.

He came to America in 1900 at the age of 12 years. He first worked in mines in Michigan and Montana, then came to Telluride in 1901 where he made his home for 57 years.

Mr. Ranta worked in the mines for awhile after coming to Telluride, then took up the carpentry trade, becoming a superior craftsman.

If other men interested in this field of work.

On May 5, 1904 he was married to Anna Maki. To them were born five children, three of whom died in infancy.

Surviving are two sons, William and Elmer, and two grandchildren, Vicki and Allan.

Mrs. Rudlo and 9 Children Have Reunion

A family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louie Grosso in Sawpit on August 17. An outdoor barbecue was served to thirty-five members of the family and guests.

This is the first time for many years that Mrs. Rudlo and her nine children have all been together.

Those partaking in this delicious repast were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rudlo of Barrego Springs, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith of Orlando, Florida, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Smith and family, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Smith of Redvale, Mr. and Mrs. Hilbert Smith and grandson, Glennie of Outlaw Mesa, and George Smith also of Outlaw Mesa.

There are now four of the 1958 graduating class of Telluride High School in the Navy. Ray William Gant and Norburn Lee Robertson enlisted July 17, according to Recruiter Ed Collins of Montrose.

Although complete information was not available at press time, the Telluride Schools will start this coming Tuesday, Sept. 2.

The school buses will run the same schedule as last year, according to our information.

We hope to have news of the teaching staff and enrollment next week.

2 More Join Navy

Glen Gordon, son of Dwayne Gordon, of Telluride, enlisted in the U. S. Navy at Denver, August 22.

Albert Harry Moureaux Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Moureaux, of Telluride also enlisted in the Navy at Denver Aug. 22.

Both boys are graduates of Telluride High School, and worked in Telluride before enlisting in the Navy. They will remain together through their recruit training at San Diego, California, this being guaranteed to them when they enlisted under the Navy's buddy program.
