

Interview by School Children 1980

OH 104

Elvera Wunderlich and Irene Visintine

Irene's work history. Speaks of parents

Tells story of trip to Bridal Veil Falls power plant. She rode the tram.

Talks about Ron Remine and his brother.

Speaks of foods they cooked. They used a wood kitchen range to cook and still do. Kept food in iceboxes with ice supplied by icemen.

They had electricity but no television.

Trains came twice a day and there was a stage from Montrose. Used sleighs pulled by horses in winter. The mail came in on the train.

Describes social life of town.

Elvera tells story of Marshall Elscamp and speaks of Marshall Jim Clark. The town had a 9pm curfew for children.

Describes clothes they wore.

Mentions the businesses in town, Golden Rule and the Chicago Store. Had several men's stores.

Depression era.

Used wood and coal stoves to heat houses and their water.

Speaks of accidents in mines and the flu epidemic. Names hospital and Doctors.

School life

Speaks of changes in Telluride now.

How Telluride was named.